Russell Shrader April 23rd

Acting Secretary Jack Hopkins read the minutes from the March 26th meeting. A motion was made to approve the minutes as read by Jack Kellmann, and was seconded by Ray Holmes. The motion passed.

Humor was provided by Jack Hopkins and President Fay reading from the joke book.

Russell Shrader then collected the "Fines".

President Fay reminded everyone of the Board Meeting on April 7th and Officer Elections at the April 9th Business Meeting. She also advised that the VOICE is on the District Website with information about the next District Meeting in Houston.

President Fay read a letter from Amy at St. PJs thanking us for allowing their kids to go to the Film Festival. Ray Holmes advised that the final profit from the film Festival was $2,077.15. He advised that the Magic Show would be in six months or so.

President Fay has been unable to contact Gene Overstreet to be the emcee at the Installation Banquet.

Jack Hopkins announced that the South Texas District is Number 1 in all of Optimist International at the six months point, being plus 111 in membership.

Following various conversations, Ray Holmes drew the winning ticket, and Sara Villarreal won $8.00 this week, so she can buy some gas!

Following the Optimist Creed, the meeting was adjourned at 12:43.
