In the business meeting:

President Fay brought up the Magic Show including an email reply from Rick Coleman to Jim Beal.

Membership was the next topic, our membership was 34 at the first of the Optimist year, and is down to 31. Jack Hagans came up in regard to his probable resignation from the year. Lloyd Buckmaster's name came up as his duties in the American Legion wind down.

The next topic that came up was fundraising, and other Club's events. Letty suggested that we have the kids make ornaments at the Christmas Party on December 12th when John Rosenwald is the emcee.

Fay discussed the members who were in the military, and we showed Jack Kellmann and Rick Coleman's pictures from "the good old days". A discussion of old Club scrapbooks found by Jack Kellmann ensued. Followed was a discussion of the old club in Beeville and the late Carol Bozant.

"Y" drew the winning ticket and Pam Parnell won $13.00. Two weeks in a row!!!!

Following the Optimist Creed, the meeting was adjourned at 12:44.
